James S. Savett

January 25, 1942 - February 11, 2020

James (“Jim”) S. Savett began his career as an actor. In the 1960s, Jim appeared in the Pasadena Playhouse, a powerhouse in the history of American theater that commissioned over 550 new works and spearheaded hundreds of world premieres. Its college provided an arts education to over 30,000 students, including notables such as Raymond Burr, Ernest Borgnine, Dustin Hoffman, Sally Struthers, and others.

Jim appeared in multiple productions at the Pasadena Playhouse, and even took a shot at writing screenplays. He then expanded his career to television, appearing on productions of “Hogan’s Heroes”, a television sitcom that ran for six seasons. An accident caused Jim to leave the stage, and so he moved to Las Vegas and worked as a stagehand at various hotels while he attended UNLV. Then he went on to law school, fulfilling a dream. After graduation from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles in 1979, he settled in Las Vegas and practiced law here for over 40 years. He worked in private practice for several firms, including the law firm of Fitzgibbons Beatty, and he worked as an Assistant United States Attorney. Jim died on February 11, 2020, at the age of 78.

In honor of Jim, his Estate has donated a portion of the costs for this production.

Jim would have loved this production of “Legally Blonde”, because it combines his passions for theater and law.

Directors Note

“I thank you one and all, the ones that thought I’d fail, who taught me how to fail, who helped me to prevail.”

Legally Blonde is an iconic movie with a strong “Girl Power” message, and the musical is no different. Elle Woods teaches all of us that it is okay to be exactly who you are. She teaches us how to fail and fail with grace. She teaches us the importance of friendships, and she shows us that it’s okay to do things for love. No matter who you are, you can learn something from Elle Woods.

When choosing a musical for this year, I was dead set on finding a show that would highlight all of the female talent we have in this department and it finally felt like the right time to do Legally Blonde. The show is massive. It has a script with fast scene changes, quick dialogue and a score with music that is above most high school level performers, but I knew our amazing students could rise to the challenge, and boy have they. This production has really been a collaboration across the whole school. We have all majors represented in the cast on stage—theatre, music, dance, and art. Our projections were created by graphic arts students, our pit is full of student musicians, our set was created by student technicians, and we even got the teachers involved for a quick cameo in Act I! It has been such a wild ride putting this show together but I am so excited for it to finally have an audience. I am incredibly proud of the work everyone has put into this production, from onstage, to backstage, to the lobby and into the pit. The material is challenging and they have handled it so well.

We hope you enjoy the show!

HELP SAVE LIVES BY ADOPTING, FOSTERING & SPONSORING!

The Las Vegas Valley Humane Society is a non-profit organization dedicated to the rescue of sick, injured, and homeless animals in Southern Nevada.

Each year the LVVHS adopts out nearly 500 animals at their adoption events around Las Vegas. All dogs have been spayed/neutered, vaccinated, and microchipped.

For current adoption event schedule & locations and to view adoptable dogs and cats, visit www.lvvhumane.org/adoptions

LVVHS is in need of foster homes for the hundreds of animals rescued each year. It's the most rewarding way to help a homeless animal in need while they are waiting for a forever home. LVVHS provides food and medical care, while you provide a temporary home and lots of love.

Please fill out a foster application at www.lvvhumane.org/foster

Become a sponsor and you will help give pets the vital care they need. LVVHS is happy to send you any updates we receive on the animals you sponsor so you can learn about your impact firsthand!
